

Name in English: I.M. (Ieoh Ming) Pei
Name in Chinese: 贝聿铭 [貝聿銘]
Name in Pinyin: Bèi Yù Míng
Gender: M
Date of Birth: 1917
Place of Birth: Canton (Guangzhou), Guangdong, China

Profession: Architect

Education: University of Pennsylvania, MIT, Harvard

Awards: 1983 Pritzker Architectural Prize Laureate

Contribution(s): Pei has designed over fifty projects in this country and abroad, many of which have been award winners. His more prominent commissions have included the East Building of the National Gallery of Art, Washington, D.C.; Le Grand Louvre in Paris, France; the Bank of China in Hong Kong; the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Library near Boston; the National Center for Atmospheric Research, Boulder, Colorado; the Dallas City Hall in Texas; The Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center in Dallas, Texas; the Society Hill development in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; the Overseas Chinese Banking Corporation Centre (OCBC) and Raffles City in Singapore; the West Wing of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston; the Fragrant Hill Hotel near Beijing, China; Creative Artists Agency Headquarters in Beverly Hills, California; the Jacob K. Javits Center in New York; an IBM Office Complex in Somers, NY and another in Purchase, NY; the Everson Museum of Art, Syracuse, New York; and the Texas Commerce Tower in Houston.

He has designed arts facilities and university buildings on the campuses of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the University of Rochester, Cornell University, the Choate School, Syracuse University, New York University and the University of Hawaii.

External links:

<http://architecture.about.com/od/greatarchitects/p/pei.htm>

<http://www.amazon.com/I-M-Pei-Profile-American-Architecture/dp/0810937093>

http://encarta.msn.com/encyclopedia_761575591/pei.html